4. About when were the twin gables on the top of the church tower added ? The Battle of Crecy (1346)

Back, back into the haze of history this Church of ours has been served continuously and faithfully by Christian worshippers until the present day. Little has changed. The twin gables on the top of the Tower were added about the time of the Battle of Crecy. The Font was installed when John of Gaunt was a household name. The Altar was new when Bonnie Prince Charlie was hiding in the heather.

5. Which is the odd one out: Tingehearst, Tinghurst, Tynghurste, Tyngehurst, Tyinghurst? Tynghurste

The Parish of Fingest is recorded in Saxon times and on ancient documents its name varies from Thengest to Vengest, Tingehearst, Tynghurst, Tyinghurst, Tyngehurst, Thinghurst and Tinghurst.

The word "T hing" or "Hing" is derived from the Saxon word "Hangen" which means "at the hanging wood." Hanger Wood is the wood right behind you from where you stand.
